6. Booking Amendments

6.1. Modifications by the Supplier

6.1.1. In case of force majeure, such as weather conditions threatening the Client's safety, the Suppliers may need to modify the Client's itinerary or cancel the Services, suggesting a suitable alternative if available. Any changes in price or refunds will be at the Supplier's discretion.

6.1.2. The cancellation of the Services by the Supplier equals to a cancellation by Pacific Destinations. Please see the Cancellation Policy below.

6.2. Modifications by the Agent/Client

6.2.4. In case of a change in the Booking price, Pacific Destinations will issue a new invoice for additional charges or a credit note for a reduction in price.

7. Cancellation Policy

7.1. Cancellation by Pacific Destinations or its suppliers

7.1.1. Pacific Destinations reserves the right to cancel all or some of the Services in the Booking in specific cases such as: failure by the Agent/Client to pay the price of the Booking, force majeure such as unfavourable/dangerous weather conditions, for reasons which endanger the safety of the Client and/or jeopardize the smooth running of the Trip, or if the Supplier is unable to provide the Services due to unforeseen circumstances.

7.1.2. In the event of cancellation by the Supplier before or during the Trip, Pacific Destinations will endeavour to offer similar services to the Client to ensure the smooth running of the Trip

7.1.3. Pacific Destinations New Zealand reserves the right to cancel the Booking if the payment of the full balance is not received within 30 days prior to the Client's departure.

7.2. Cancellation by the Client

7.2.1. The Agent/Client may cancel the Booking under the following conditions:

- More than 31 days prior to departure: Deposits and all payments made are refundable (excluding any domestic airlines tickets purchased which are subject to separate terms and conditions)
- From 30 to 21 days prior to departure: 25% fee charged of the Booking per person participating in the trip
- From 20 to 8 days prior to departure: 50% fee charged of the Booking per person participating in the trip
- 7 days prior to departure: 100% of the Booking fee is charged

In addition to our cancellation fees, all cancellation fees levied by suppliers will be passed on. We highly recommend all passengers to purchase travel insurance.

7.2.2. Any cancellations must be requested via email during trading hours (Monday to Friday 9.00am to 4.00pm New Zealand time), to the following email addresses: groups@pdnz.co.nz

The day of receipt of the cancellation request will constitute the day of cancellation for the calculation of the cancellation fees. If the cancellation occurs outside trading hours, including New Zealand Public Holiday, the next working day will constitute the day of cancellation for the calculation of the cancellation fees.

7.2.3. In case of a specific agreement between Pacific Destinations and the Agent/Client, the agreement will replace the above conditions.

8. Refunds and Claims

8.1. No refund can be claimed if the Client fails to present the required travel documentation to the New Zealand Authorities on arrival to the country.

8.2. Pacific Destinations cannot be held responsible for delays caused by air, sea or land transportation that would result in the Client being unable to use the Services booked. If the trip is changed due to transport related issues, any resulting costs will remain at the expense of the Client.

8.3. Any Services that have not been used by the Client, or interruption of the Travel by the Client due the Client's fault, will not be refunded whatever the cause.

8.4. Potential complaints about the Trip must be received by Pacific Destinations in writing, within 30 days after the departure of the Client from New Zealand. After this period, Pacific Destinations cannot guarantee it will be able to follow up the complaints with the Suppliers or request any refunds if applicable.

9. Travel Insurance and Documents

9.1. Travel insurance is not included in the services provided by Pacific Destinations. We strongly recommend the Client to purchase comprehensive travel insurance before starting their trip.

9.2. Each Traveller must ensure that their passport (valid for 6+ months after the return date) and travel documentation, including copy of their travel insurance certificate, are in order and that they have obtained the necessary visa and complied with all other requirements for their travel. Pacific Destinations will not be held responsible for them travelling without the correct travel documentation.

10. Suppliers Terms & Conditions

10.1. Pacific Destinations cannot be held responsible for the non-compliance of the Client, or refusal to comply with the Terms & Conditions of the Suppliers during the Travel.

10.2. Pacific Destinations cannot be held responsible for any failure of the Client to exercise parental authority over their children during the Travel.

10.3. Due to the unpredictable economic impact of COVID-19, some services may no longer operate at time of travel. Should this happen, we will do our best to offer similar alternatives.

10.4. In addition, New Zealand authorities may have to put in place health security restrictions due to COVID-19, such as suppliers having to limit the maximum number of passengers per vehicle or during visits.

11. Applicable Law

These Terms & Conditions are subject to the laws of the New Zealand and any disputes will be settled under its jurisdiction.
